Non-Personally Identifying Information. We may also collect information automatically about your use of the Website, through, for example, "cookies" or "IP addresses" (as described below). OOTU also archives log files and uses non-personally identifying information in aggregate form to detect errors with the Website, identify security issues, build higher quality, more useful online services by performing statistical analyses of the collective characteristics and behavior of OOTU users, and measure demographics and interests in connection with specific areas of the Website. We may provide such statistical data to our advertisers, affiliates and other current and potential business partners. "Cookies" are small files websites place on your hard drive that allow websites to identify you. For example, if you allow a website to remember your login name or password, the website places a cookie on your computer. We may place cookies on your computer to allow us to identify you when you visit the Website, to measure Website traffic, or to customize your visit. However, if you do not wish to receive cookies, or want to be notified of when they are placed, your browser may permit you to do so. An "IP address" is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer when you use the Internet. In some cases your IP address stays the same from browser session to browser session; but if you use a consumer internet access provider, your IP address probably varies from session to session.

Use of Contractors and Service Providers. OOTU may use third parties to help with certain aspects of its operations, which may require disclosure of your Personal Information to them. For example, OOTU may use a third party to communicate with you, to host the Website and related databases, and to perform other work that we may choose to outsource. OOTU permits these third parties to use your Personal Information only as necessary to perform the services they are asked to perform.

Security. We use industry-standard measures to protect the Personal Information you share with us from unauthorized access or disclosure. However, we make no guarantee against unauthorized access to any information you provide.

Modifications to the Privacy Policy. We may make changes to the Privacy Policy from time to time in our sole discretion. We will post any a revised version of the Privacy Policy that reflects such changes on the Website along with a notice on the Website that the Privacy Policy have been revised. Your continued use of the Website following the posting of a revised version of the Privacy Policy constitutes your acceptance of any such changes.
